8:15 to 10:15 Presentation

For information or to register your attendance, please email Jeremy Bader at Jeremy@kuniklo.com by Monday, January 17th, 2011.

Session Overview: Government regulations, contract law, joint ventures, teaming arrangements, owner and subcontractor remedies—understanding the legal environment of construction can prevent costly mistakes and help you understand what to do if things go badly. Presenters, Fidelis Garcia and Shivani Dubey, will discuss what you can do to strengthen your business legal infrastructure and what to consider in teaming arrangements, joint ventures, and other contractual pursuits.

About the P2P Series: The Preparing to Prime training series is designed for general contractors and specialty trade contractors who are seeking prime contracting opportunities with ADOT and other government agencies. The series may also be useful to subcontractors who are trying to understand the prime contractor's perspective on ADOT projects. The full schedule of classes is available at adotdbe.com. For more information on the P2P series, please contact Jeremy Bader at Kuniklo Corporation at Jeremy@kuniklo.com.

P2P Refreshment Sponsor: The Arizona Builder's Exchange

The AZ Builder's Exchange is a digital newsletter published twice a week full of local, current information for the building industry. With articles on funding for CIP programs, legislation affecting the industry, projects bidding, bid results/project awards, permits pulled, and a host of other local information, they can help you keep up with what's going on in the local market.
